CBD-Adjacent Dental Care for Melbourne Professionals

Core Dental Southbank is one of Melbourne's most conveniently located dental practices - just a short walk from Flinders Street Station and steps from the Yarra River, Eureka Tower, and Melbourne's vibrant Southbank arts and dining precinct. Whether you work in the CBD, live in Southbank, or are visiting Melbourne, Core Dental Southbank offers outstanding dental care without the need to travel far.

This practice caters particularly well to Melbourne's working professionals. With an 8:00 am start Monday to Friday, early morning appointments before work are available. Evening appointments run until 6:00 pm, and Saturday sessions provide weekend flexibility for those who simply cannot get away during the week.

Core Dental Southbank is also well equipped to assist international visitors and tourists who require dental care while in Melbourne. Detailed invoices suitable for international insurance claims are provided, and emergency same-day care is available for visitors experiencing dental problems away from home.

Getting There

By Train: Core Dental Southbank is a short, comfortable walk from Flinders Street Station - one of Melbourne's busiest and most central train stations.

By Tram: Multiple tram routes run along St Kilda Road and City Road, placing the practice within easy reach from across the CBD and inner suburbs.

By Car: Street parking is available in the surrounding streets. Several CBD car parks are nearby, including Wilson Parking and Secure Parking facilities within a short walk.
